

South Carolina Department of Agriculture's Rules and Regulations for Festivals

1. No applications accepted without payment.
2. Only items stated on application allowed for sale in booth.
3. Vendors must remain in place for the entire show. Do not arrive late or leave early.
4. Products must be top quality. Plant producers must have plants free of pests and funguses and are accountable to Clemson inspectors from the Plant Industry Division.
5. Booth must be clean at all times.
6. No smoking in booth spaces.
7. Vendors may not assign or sublet spaces.
8. Firearms, provocative materials, tobacco-drug paraphernalia, foods other than those listed on application, live animals, or any other goods that management deems inappropriate for sale on the days of the event will not be allowed.
9. Goods for sale will be limited to purchased space unless approved by festival personnel.
10. Vendors are responsible for applicable licensing and taxes.
11. Vendors are responsible for insuring his/her own exhibit, personnel, display and materials from any damage or loss through theft, fire, accident, weather or other cause.
12. Any matters not specifically covered herein or in any subsequent festival guide are subject to the decision of the festival personnel, and it's decision on any matters which may arrive hereunder shall be final.
13. Vendors are cautioned that violations of these regulations may result in sanctions imposed by the Festival Director, and that these sanctions could include but not be limited to exhibitors' name being stricken from the future list of exhibitors and actual removal from the exhibition booth.
14. Festival personnel reserve the right to make changes, amendments, and additions to these rules and regulations as it considers necessary for the good of the event.
15. The department has the right to refuse vendor privileges to an exhibitor if verified complaints have been submitted against a vendor.
16. All complaints must be in writing. These forms are available at the information booth.
17. We will not accommodate overnight RV campers on market property.